

ENVELOPE J-III: MYSORE (1780-1840)

1. Letter from Henry Dundas to Lord Mornington (later Earl Wellesley), Gov.General of India: 9-10-1799: reg. Mysore and also the desirability of taking Goa and Diu.

- 6 pages [British Museum: Additional Manuscripts No.37274 (Sheets 244-57) amongst the Wellesley Papers]
[TYPED 6 PAGES]

2. Letter from J.Adam, Secy to Bengal Govt to Cole: 11-5-1818: asking for grant of a personal Jagheer to the Rajah of Mysore; Also extract from Adam's letter to T.Munro, 6-7-1818, reg. rewarding the "little fellow" for his aid during the last war.

- 2 pages [IOR: Elphinstone Papers: F88/9/E/20/No.13]
[TYPED 2 PAGES]

3. Mysore 1782: Account of negotiations with representatives of the Ranny of Mysore and other native powers inimical to Hyder Ali to form an alliance to overthrow Hyder.

- 3 pages [Scottish Record Office: GD 51/3/499/15]
[TYPED 3 PAGES]

4. Political Despatch to India on Affairs of Mysore: 30-10-1839, No.20: Regarding severity of punishment of Nuggur insurgents imposed by Lt.Col.Cubbon, the validity of sentences based only on confessions, the issue of Capital punishment, etc.

- 2 pages [IOR: E/4/760]
[TYPED 2 PAGES]

5. Explanation by Col. Cubbon on why conviction based on self-confession is valid in Mysore. (1830's)

- 1 page [IOR: Board's Collections: No.72794 (F/4/1771: 1838-39)]
[TYPED 1 PAGE]
-