2. Hindu Ethnosociology: Articles by R.S.Khare, L.A.Bobb, Michael Moffat, G.J.Larson and K.N.Sharma. Five papers from the Journal "Contributions to Indian Sociology". Starts with the notion that studying Indian Sociology needs to be done against a background of the Hindu view of reality, not a Western one. "It is claimed that Hindus explain events or processes as the product of at least 3 independent variables acting in concert". eg. doshas (Vata, Pitta, Kapha), gunas (Sattwa, Rajas, Tamas).
